MONEY POWER!

LANSING FINANCIAL EMPOWERMENT CENTER LAUNCHES NEW TV SHOW

(LANSING) – The Lansing Financial Empowerment Center is pleased to announce the launch of our new television program called "Money Power!" The show is designed to further the Center's mission of improving the financial health of Lansing residents.

Produced by Lansing's Public Media Center (lansingmedia.com), each episode will contain segments such as "Cash Chasers" (ways to supplement your income), "Penny Pinchers" (ways to trim your household expenses), and "Money Minders" (budgeting and other money-management tools).

The new shows will air on Lansing's City-TV, which is located on Channel 12 for Comcast subscribers in the city. Money Power episodes will also be available "on demand" at http://vimeo.com/channels/560331.

The Lansing Financial Empowerment Center's motto is: "You can do it. We can help!" The Center, a partnership between the City of Lansing and Capital Area Community Services, provides free, confidential, one-on-one financial counseling to Lansing residents at five locations in the city.

To schedule a free financial counseling appointment, call 2-1-1 (or 1-866-561-2500). For more information about the Financial Empowerment Center, visit www.lansingmi.gov/ofe.
